

INTRODUCING IMAGINARIUM FABRICS

Raeco is proud to launch its exclusive Imaginarium series of designs. These fabrics can be applied across our ottomans and soft seating. Following detailed consultations with Raeco, Whimsical Artist Claudia Rubinstein has designed a series of vibrant and imaginative artworks, each telling its own story.

Claudia Rubinstein - Whimsical Artist

Claudia is an extraordinary storyteller and artist.

Fueled by a vivid imagination, her work is a joyous celebration that touches the child within.

Claudia collects her inspirations and materials with tenderness and care, combining them with a rare eye for colour and an appreciation of the limitless possibilities of a good imagination.

FROG DAY

It's frog day at the library and all through the town,
The frogs get all dressed up to make their way down.
You might not have heard this, but frogs love to read,
And on frog day, they've been known to cause a stampede.
Their sticky hands get all over the books,
The librarians are serving them rather stern looks.
It's important to treat books with love and care,
Because we all know that stories are meant to be shared.
A sticky book feels quite yucky to hold,
Someone please help, these frogs must be controlled!

OCEAN COMMOTION

Under the waves of the great big ocean,
We can always observe quite a lot of commotion.
The fish are exploring - and what have they found?
I think that's a treasure, wedged there in the ground!
Watch out for the octopus, he's rather cunning,
And isn't the mermaid on horseback so stunning?
There's plenty to look at down under the sea,
Let's dive in together, us, you and me.

GARDEN OF SECRETS

Where flowers bloom pink and grow rampantly wild,
There lives a kind and curious child.
With butterfly wings upon their big head,
They visit this place while asleep in their bed.
Their dream is of fairies, of mushrooms, and snails,
Where sparkles of magic leave glittering trails.
And when you are tucked up and safely asleep,
The garden of secrets is one you can keep.

NIGHT FLIGHT

Gemstones glisten in the night,
As insects crawl and owls take flight.
And nestled in the garden there,
A castle and a top-hat hare.
The moon at peace watches down,
Across the star-lit little town.
Gazing eyes all gleaming bright,
Imaginations will ignite.
